

SANTA FE TRAIL RANCH WOMEN'S GROUP MEETING—NOVEMBER 14, 2014

The SFTR Women's Group met at the home of Tammy Raine on November 14, 2014. Those attending included Sharon Beaver, Roxanne Briggs, Ann Kost, Tammy Raine, Lanae Rossi, Marcia Sage, Nancy Scott, Carol Smith, and Jill Wilson.

The group welcomed newcomers Marcia Sage and Jill Wilson and then dealt with the following items:

---The Christmas Party meal will be a buffet for $18.00 per person which includes tax, tip and the cost of the room if there are fifty people. If there are not enough attendees, the Women's will make up any difference. The group will also cover the $1.50 cost per dessert.

---After discussion it was decided that the tables will be rectangle and already "dressed." We will ask that the silverware be on the tables, and the plates be at the buffet table.

---Jill will check out the decorations present at the venue to determine if more are needed for THE night. Carol, Tammy and Sharon will add to the decorations if needed.

---Mary has the flyers and RSVP's and payment are to be made to Lanae by December 5.

---Sharon will make the nametags.

---Lanae and Nancy will bring some appropriate background music and Carol will bring her trivia sheets for the tables.

Other items included the following:

---Lanae will coordinate the food volunteers for those who will be volunteering during the fire mitigation in January-March. She suggests providing a variety of protein, sweet, and salty and easy to eat.

---Ann reported that Cedar Street Printing has not responded to the request to print 50 maps (year 2009). She will contact them again and ask that they be ready by a deadline before the party. If that deadline cannot be met, she will find a printer in Pueblo.

There was much sharing about life on this beautiful ranch after the business was finished. One tip offered was to be wary of snakes under the dumpsters. Everyone enjoyed Tammy's delicious snacks.

There will be no meeting in December and any future meeting is TBA.

Happy Thanksgiving, everyone!!

Respectfully Submitted,

Sharon Beaver
