

Metro Operations Center being framed , viewed from the East, looking at the Metro warehouse area. The rollup door will be where the forklift is sitting.

West end of building. The area at the right without side girts will be the pavilion.

Weather permitting, the frame should be completed by 27 Feb and the siding and roof installation will begin.